AN EARLY MATUTINAL LUNCH PARTY.

Pythian Celebrations to Occur To-night—Cottillion Club German a Pleasurable Success—Pastor Most Heartily Pounded—Colored High School Stockholders Meet.

Suffolk, Va., Dec. 18.—(Special)—The German last night by the Suffolk Cottillion Club, the last before the Christmas holidays, was a pleasurable success. The music was good, the floor in excellent condition and no incident arose to mar the occasion. About twenty-five couples were on the floor under the leadership of Mr. N. R. Withers. Among the strangers present were: Misses Mary Thompson Louisville, Ky.; Alice Jeffrey and Margaret Winn, of Richmond; Sue Urquhart, of North Carolina; Emma Carney, of Churchland; Hortense Burum and Lillian Arnold, of Norfolk; Janie Bogart, Franklin. The dance continued till about 1:30 this morning.

Pythian Celebrations.—Mr. W. E. Garrett, of Leesburg, Va., Grand Chancellor Knights of Pythias, will on Thursday night officially visit Welcome Lodge No. 56, in Suffolk. After the visitation and the transaction of attendant business in their hall the Pythians will adjourn to the Stuart House, where an elaborate oyster supper will be served. Every member is requested to be present.

LICENSES ISSUED.—These marriage licenses were issued from the County Clerk's office: Frank D. Carr to Martha A. Butler, white; John H. Courtney to Melissa Jenkins, colored; James E. Stallings to Maggie Lawrence, colored; James Hatton to Ida Brinkley, colored.

IRISH DRAMA.—On Thursday and Friday nights Miss Nora Macree and Company will appear at the City Hall Theatre in a refined Irish drama. Various songs and dances and vaudeville specialties will be introduced.

PASTOR'S SERVICES APPRECIATED.—As a mark of recognition for his faithful and efficient services as pastor of the East Suffolk Methodist Church the congregation with a unanimity of purpose last evening repaired to Rev. D. B. Austin's residence, on Pearl street, laden with a bounteous "pounding." The gifts consisted of fruits, vegetables, groceries, meats and various other requisites to a well kept larder.

EARLY MORNING LUNCH PARTY.—About 2 o'clock this morning, after the conclusion of the German, Miss Matilda Nelson Boswell gave a delightful lunch party at her home, on Sycamore street, in honor of Misses Hortense Burum and Lillian Arnold, of Norfolk. The decorations were pink and green.

The function was enjoyed by a charming coterie of friends, among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. George S. Briggs, Mr. William Burruss with Miss Lillie Dace Boswell, Mr. E. Kitchen with Miss Jennie Briggs, Mr. W. G. Elam with Miss Lillian Arnold, Mr. Burruss, Corp. Hugh Arnold with Miss Grace Boswell, Suffolk, Va., Dec. 18.—(Special)—An invitation is acknowledged to attend a musical and educational entertainment in the music hall of Suffolk College on Friday evening, December 20th, at 8 o'clock. Past efforts of this institution are a guarantee of the merit of future public exhibitions of artistic skill.

REAL ESTATE SOLD.—These bargain and sale deeds were today put on record in the County Clerk's office: Thomas W. Savage and wife to John R. Ballard, 44½ acres in Cypress district, $22,750.

W. C. Warkman and wife to John B. Pinner, one lot on Market street, $22,500.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL STOCKHOLDERS.—The stockholders of the Suffolk Normal and Collegiate Institute had a meeting last evening at which a considerable amount of stock which a considerable amount of stock previously subscribed was paid for. The school is now in operation with a fair attendance, and its friends hope that the organization will remain permanent and prosperous.

FOR CHAIRS.—The "Passing Show," by amateur talent, for the benefit of the King's Daughters' night school, will be repeated next week. The management will endeavor to eclipse the success attendant on its first appearance. New and fancy costumes have been procured and the staging has been greatly improved.

Mrs. George Sibbats, of Long Island, N. Y., and Mrs. H. E. Thompson, of Newburgh, N. Y., arrived today to visit Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Dumville.

At the last meeting of the Nameless Lodges, No. 2999, Knights of Honor, eleven new applications for membership were received.

Mrs. Mat. O'Brien and Misses Blanche and May O'Brien, who had been the guests of Mrs. S. L. Gollart, left today for their home, in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. Aaron Colten, of Baltimore, a former Suffolk merchant, was in town today.

Mrs. Nancy Hoffman was thought to be worse this afternoon.

There was to-night a conference at the Main Street Methodist Church. The stewards of the same church met this afternoon.

makes fire if it doesn't spell it, and what's more, makes the best fire in the world. With a good quality of black diamonds like ours a fire can be quickly kindled, and there's nothing like a coal fire for first-class cooking. Two things make our Coal cheap, the quality and the low price. It's certainly economy to use our Coal in your kitchen at the present time, and it's also a double economy, a gladdened investment to order your winter supply now, with the price $4.00 a ton, and full weight guaranteed.
